ADMINISTRATION,

FACULTY, AND STAFF

Congratulations!

Despite the difficulties occasioned by overcrowded classrooms and often impassable halls, Fairfax students have again added to the splendid record of our school.

In scholarship and in many other areas, this year as always, Colonials have excelled.

To those who will return in the fall, and to those who are graduating, well done!

It is a privilege to work with such outstanding young people.

As we leave DeWitt S. Swan Auditorium for the last time, we can remember entering these same portals on our first day at Fairfax. With fond memories we look back upon our life here. The importance of assuming responsibility in an adult world was impressed upon us.

The first of us to assert his leadership was Carlson "Biff" LeGrand, our B-10 class president. He organized our first activity, a "get acquainted" picnic in Goodwin Gardens.

Behind every great class there is a woman and our first lady was Marilyn Stein, who guided us through our A-10 semester. During her term of office we had an immensely successful talent show in Greenway Court.

The spirit that was kindled by the talent show was sustained by activities such as the wonderful bicycle ride and picnic in Griffith Park and a volleyball tournament among the various B-11 history classes organized by our B-11 class President Jerry Fischkes.

In our A-11 semester, under the leadership of Andi Ross, we gained identity as a class. We chose our class name, Thaliens, and colors, powder blue and charcoal gray. The semester was climaxed by our first major social event, the junior prom, "Winter Fantasia."

The arrival of our long-awaited class sweaters launched our senior year. The sweaters sported an emblem with our class mascot, Thorton Thalian, designed by Jerry Reznick. 'Sweater Day' was initiated by class president Wendy Benjamin and the B-12 class cabinet: Jackie Brooks, Audrey Eskin, Bonnie Gross, and Sylvia Moskovitz. A very successful sports night - talent show was held in conjunction with the A-12 class and our breakfast, "Thalian Ambrosia," was a connoisseur's delight.

We recall most fondly our Senior Aye semester. It began with the installation of the new cabinet: President Paul Rubenstein, Vice-President Diane Bass, Secretary Lucy Baumgold, Treasurer Jackie Brooks, and Historian Ellen Levenson.

These dedicated people, under the guidance of our sponsor, Dr. Homer R. Hummel, were instrumental in making our last semester as enjoyable as it was. Numerous activities highlighted the term.

The first was a picnic in Goodwin Gardens at which the Senior Aye cheerleaders were introduced. The picnic was followed by a talent show, where Thaliens were entertained by members of their own class as well as others. "Panorama Picture Day" was the cue to hold another picnic in Goodwin Gardens. "The Last Breakfast," proved to be a real treat, highlighted by talented Thalian entertainment.

"Rhapsody in Blue," our senior prom, was the grand finale of a most wonderful three years.

Our class broke tradition when we chose to incorporate our class colors in the decor of our graduation gowns. Walking up the stairs of the auditorium for the last time to receive our diplomas was realized how much we really owe to the wonderful administration and faculty of Fairfax High School, to the others who helped us during our stay here, and to the school itself.

Signed with fondness and much appreciation,

The Thalian Class W'64

Auroreans S'64

Chery Ossais — Vice president Penny Brody — Secretary

Dan Frankel — Treasurer

Marv Rabin — President

Diane Brandler — historian

We have spent three wonderful years in the halls of Fairfax. Now we leave with two very important acquisitions, that of a formal education, and that of fond memories.

We look back to our remembrances, to our good and bad terms of learning. We look back upon our class activities under the capable leadership of our presidents. We entered Fairfax in 1961. Greg Kourilsky, the B-10 Class President, worked hard to bring our class together and to orient us for the remainder of our stay in high school.

The A-10 Class President, Wendy Hershey, began the semester with a successful cake bake to raise funds for the support of our class. Shortly afterwards, she followed it up with the first big class dance, "Hawaiian Holiday," held at our own Greenway Court.

Anna Paikow, the B-11 President, then took the reins of the class, and did a very successful job. Her major function was the Junior Prom, "Winter Fantasia." She worked hard and accomplished a very successful class picnic in Goodwin Gardens.

Upon the capable shoulders of Tzipy Farbstein, the A-11 Class President, rested the task of selecting a name and colors for which the class was to be identified. At a class sponsored hootenanny, our name, "The Auroreans," and our class colors, powder blue and white, were announced and received with enthusiasm. In a combined class picnic with the Thalian class, those running for the senior class officers were introduced, and briefly presented their ideas for class activities.

Shortly thereafter, Joni Schwartz was elected President of the Aurorean Class for the following fall semester. With the help of her capable class officers: Dorothy Brody, Vice-President; Judy Adler, Historian; Madaline Hertz, Secretary; Esther Lazarovich, Treasurer — Joni accomplished a great deal in the short time that she led us. She began the semester with an "Aurorean Hootenanny," in which the Folk Song Club of Fairfax entertained. Her next activity was a combined "Senior Talent Show" with the Thalian Class. The function was M.C.'d by the very popular and talented Mr. Biegel. The Senior Bee Breakfast, "Sunrise Snack," was a big success with an over-capacity crowd in our cafeteria to enjoy a simple breakfast and entertainment by members of the class. The biggest success of the semester was our senior prom, "June in January," held at the Riviera Country Club on the 17th of January. This event was an innovation in our school. It was the first time in the history of Fairfax that the combined senior classes have held a prom together.

We have excelled in our final semester in high school, because of a joint effort on the part of the students and their leaders. After a rough campaign and speech giving, Marv Rabin emerged victorious as President of the graduating class. He was backed by a fine council of four capable and industrious people: Cheryl Ossais, Vice-President; Penny Brody, Secretary; Diane Brandler, Historian; Dan Frankel, Treasurer. The beginning of the semester was used for orientation by the president. Then the work began. Immediate plans for a prom were begun; cheerleaders and performers were selected on the basis of their skill. Ideas for activities like ice skating, and roller skating were investigated. Dues cards were designed and sold by members of the class. Perhaps the big success was the Senior A breakfast, "Aurorean Ambrosia." Entertainment was provided by some of the class performers. Goodwin Gardens were opened weekly, exclusively for the Auroreans to meet for an enjoyable class picnic. The Senior Talent Show was even better than expected, with a great percentage of the class participating. A color day was planned for every week. After school, many Auroreans gathered at the field events to cheer on the Fairfax teams. The prom "One Enchanted Evening", held on the 20th of June in the International Hotel, was a great success and was the highlight of the semester.

We, the Auroreans, will carry with us many memories of Fairfax High School. We owe a great deal to our principals, teachers, and counselors, who have helped us during our past three years, and to them we dedicate this Graduation Issue.

A.F.S.

The American Field Service is a program which fosters world understanding and friendship. Fairfax has participated in AFS for the past three years, hosting students from France, Sweden, Iran, England, Pakistan and Uruguay, and sending Americans abroad to Germany, Argentina, Brazil and Chile. As students at Fairfax, we hope to perpetuate the AFS motto: "Walk together, talk together, all ye peoples of the world, for then and only then shall ye have peace."

I shall be grateful to the American Field Service program for giving me the opportunity of coming to the United States and learning about the things that characterize America. And I am especially grateful that good fortune brought me to Los Angeles, California, and to Fairfax High School.

With the help of patient and understanding teachers at Fairfax, I learned the story of American Heritage. With the help of my new sister, my new family, and my new friends, I learned about American customs, traditions, and ideals.

I shall never forget that far from my own country there is another that welcomed me and made me a part of their own. I ask you to remember that Uruguay and I both shall forever be your friends.

For this most wonderful year of my life, please let me say a very fond and sincere "thank you".

Each semester the yearbook staff strives to present the yearbook at its best by using the media of visual communication combined with the purest form of art. I feel that this semester we have achieved this goal.

I would like to express my thanks to you the student body and faculty for your participation and cooperation in making this one of the finest yearbooks possible here at Fairfax High School. I would especially like to thank my staff, for without them, the yearbook could not possibly exist.

The yearbook staff is headed by various associate editors—Rosie Greene, Organizations and Activities Editor; Pam Kent, Senior Editor; Hermine Feinstein, Copy Editor; Judy Goldsmith, Art Editor; Ken Marcus, Photography Editor; and Mike Schwartz, Sports Editor—each of whom have shared in my responsibilities.

To our yearbook sponsor, Miss Patricia "Mama" Evans, without whose help we never would have met the often pressing deadlines, the staff of Colonial '64 offers their deepest thanks.

R.O.T.C.

The school year 1963-1964 has been another great year. Under the able direction of Commandant of Cadets, M/Sgt. Richard Rossnagel, and with capable cadet officers, the Fairfax R. O. T. C. battle group once again became an honor unit.

The group had over one hundred cadets and offered numerous opportunities to boys who participated in the program. These cadets learned to make decisions and to accept responsibilities. They were also given a chance to practice leadership.

During the year our unit participated in many competitions. Our Rifle Team and our Drill Team put in admirable performances and came away winners on several occasions.

In keeping with a long-standing tradition, honorary positions as co-ed officers were awarded to a few senior girls.

This year Sword and Scabbard, the ROTC honor society added working in the cafeteria to its service obligations to the school. As in the past, Sword and Scabbard still ushers at assemblies. The Service Platoon also renders service to the school by keeping order at sports events and enforcing safety precautions in the parking lot.

This season's Lion football squad went from the riches of last year's championship team to the rage of a winless 0-7-1 season.

The Lions pre-season hopes were high as Coaches Harry Frum and Ken McKenna were greeted at the first practice by 70 players including nine returning lettermen.

Injuries soon quelled the high hopes as tackles Dan Feldner and Stu Gottlieb were taken out of action prior to the first game.

In the first game against Mt. Carmel, the Lions were tied 13-13. The success was neither happy or long-lived, however, halfback Jack Barth hurt his knee and remained out of action the remainder of the season. The Lions failed to score two games, and continued the season without victory.

Barth headed the list of 17 Lions only to be taken out of action due to injuries. Eleven first stringers sustained major injuries which kept them out of the line-up.

A high-light of the season was when the team traveled to Las Vegas to battle Western High School. The Lions were dropped 41-7.

Several Lions played well all season. Junior full-back Nardy Samuels carried the brunt of the Lion offensive attack as he averaged over three yards a carry. Nardy also stood out as defensive line-backer.

Guard Dan Levy, Tackle George Yager, QB Hal Strom and backs John Maslia and Jim Walden also played well.

With Gottlieb, Samuels, Rog Wilson, Mike McBride and Bob Henninger returning next season, the Lions chances in the league are good.

Bee Football

This season's Bee football team followed in the footsteps of the varsity squad as they went through the season without victory.

In the first game of the season against Mt. Carmel, the Lion Bees came closest to a victory. The Lions were dropped by the Crusaders 8-6.

This year's team was almost completely made up of newcomers and the lack of experience led to the poor season.

The Bees were also hit by untimely injuries as was the varsity eleven. Biff Le Grand, two-year letterman, was lost to the team for the majority of the season. Tony Shultz was also sidelined most of the year.

The Bee team lost several players to the varsity, including most of last year's team. This also accounted for the lack of experience.

Several Bees stood out during the year, however. Among these outstanding players were Tom Szamosi, Steve Goldman, Jerry Yelsky, and Paul Ozar. Andy Messelson and Marc Simons also played well in a losing effort.

Although first-year mentor Mr. Earl Smith did his best, it was almost impossible to put together the offense so necessary for a successful season.

This year's version of the Lion Varsity Basketball squad boasted a new coach in C. K. Sands, and an all-around good squad. All that kept the Lions from taking league was the usual lack of height that hits Colonial cage squads.

The squad had good shooters and ball-handlers but no starter over 6'-1".

The squad was sparked by returnee Morry Langer, named Colonial Athlete of the Year. Morry was second in league scoring and fifth in city scoring with a respectable 21 point average per game.

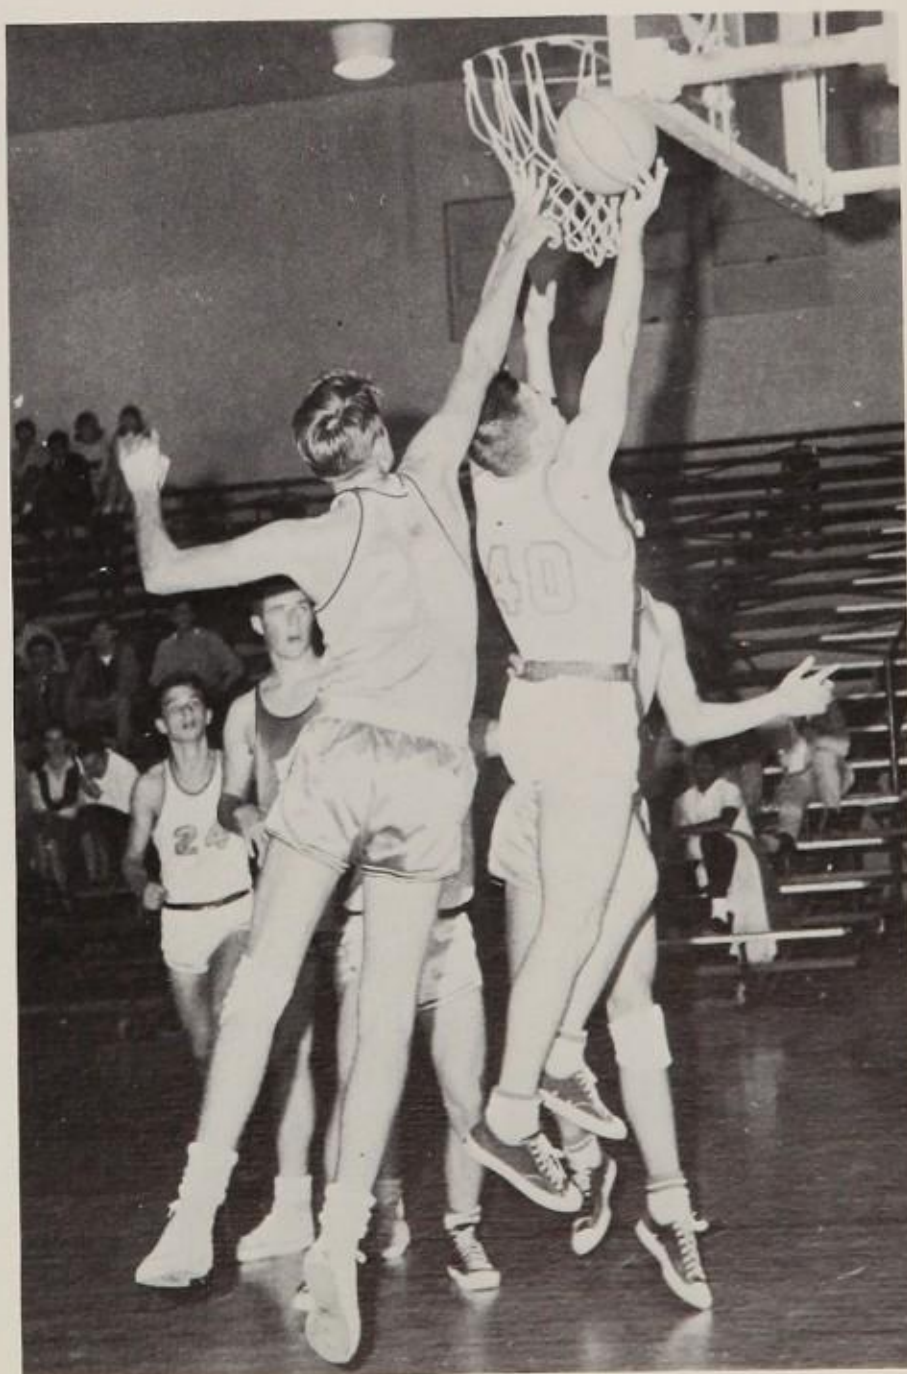

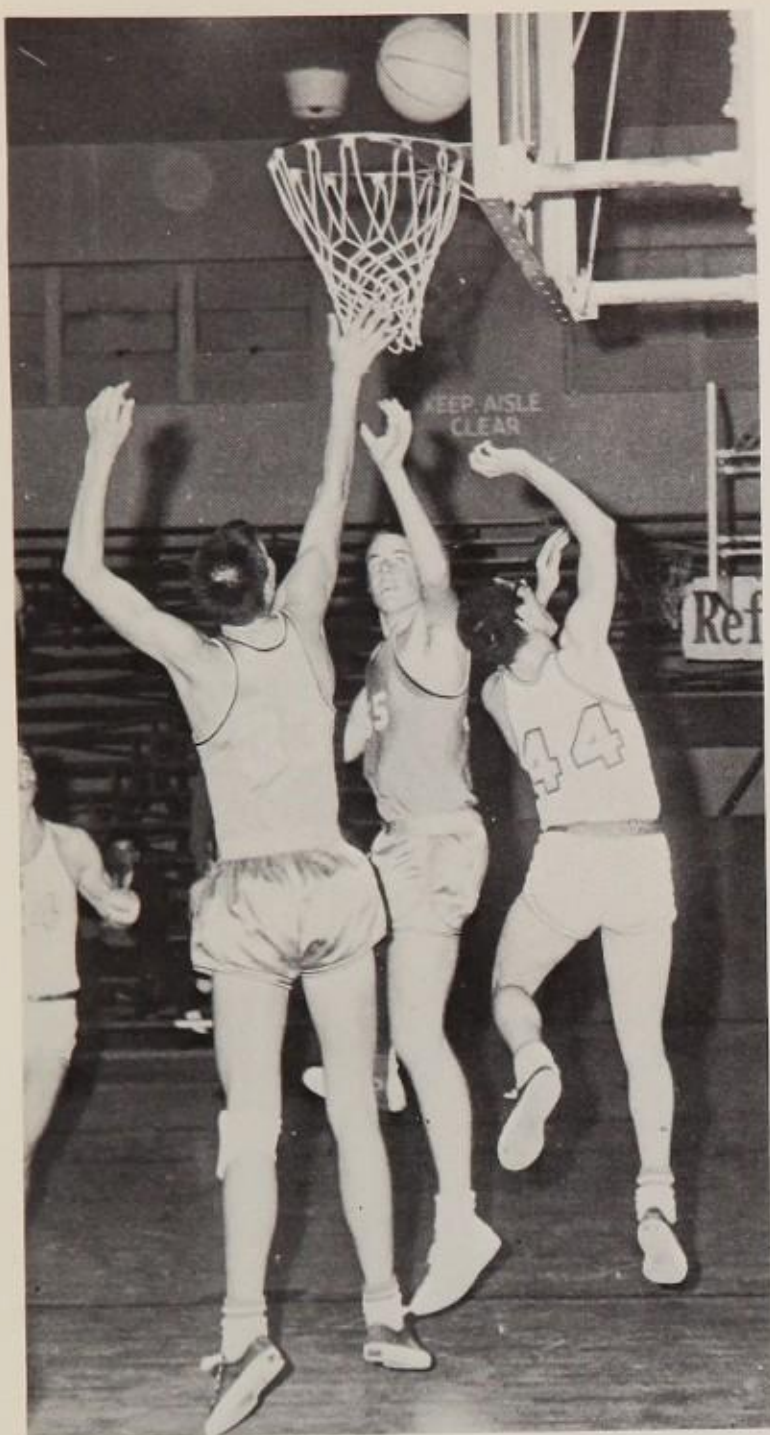

Jerry Rivlin, a junior, who transferred from out of state also contributed to the Lion scoring attack as did returnee Sol Ickovitz. Bob finished high in the final league scoring. Max Bleiweiss also did an outstanding job both in shooting and in rebounding. A surprise for Coach Sands was center Al Feld. Feld, who had not played basketball at school before this season, did more than an adequate job in the difficult center post. Throughout the season the opposing centers were taller, yet Al still managed to grab his share of rebounds.

George Linder also played outstanding in the short time he played.

Next season's squad will feature Rivlin and a host of promising Jayvees.

For the first time in many a season, the Lion gym was filled for every home game, a deserving tribute for the hard work the team and coach put in.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

Junior varsity experienced a rather dismal 3-9 season, although several players showed great promise. It was the same lack of height that plagued the varsity that hampered the Jayvees during the season.

Jayvee player of the year was the squad's sparkplug, Art Angel, with 11 points a contest and Jim Soo with seven each played well all year. Stan Kaye, 6-5 center, should progress to the same post on the varsity squad next year. Stan developed into an excellent player after a rather slow start.

Most of this year's team will graduate to the varsity ranks and their spots will be filled by players on the Bee and Cee squads at the present time. Both Elperin and Kaye should prove to be outstanding next year.

BEE BASKETBALL

This season's Bee basketball squad had many outstanding players but could not seem to jell together as a unit. They finished the season with a 3-9 record.

The three times that the Bees won were quite convincing victories. They downed leaguer leader Hamilton in the last week of the season for the Yanks first loss. The Bee team did not do as well during the other parts of the season, however.

Outstanding performers on the Bee team were Mike Minster, who led the team in scoring, and Jay Jaffee who was second in scoring. Other players played outstanding all year. Included among these were Rob Moss, Phil Kupers, Rich Bruck, Mike Hudes, Irv Gross, Steve Reidman and Larry Klayman. All played well in a losing cause. Gross and Reidman were the only two seniors on the team.

CEE BASKETBALL

This season's Cee squad was, at different times, one of the best and worst teams in the league.

The squad finished the season with a mediocre 6-6 record. They did, however, knock off the two top teams in the league, Westchester and Hamilton in the latter part of the season. The team was constantly high scoring although they were hit by periods of careless ballhandling.

The leading player on the squad was forward Zack Sklar who led the team in scoring with a 15 point average. Zack started every game and did not miss one quarter during the season. Also outstanding during the year, were Larry Cantor, Steve Rankell and the Moss twins, Don and Dave.

8) CEE BASKETBALL W'63 row 1 C. Shuman, R. Stanman, L. Cantor, M. Yure, D. Moss, P. Diamond. row 2 Mr. Lloyd, A. Sklar, D. Goldberg, D. Moss, S. Rankell, M. Pascal, S. Zanille.

Cross Country

This season's Lion cross-country squad started the season strong, but faltered in the latter part of the year, finishing third in the league. However, the team placed fourth in the league finals.

Both the Jayvees and tenth grade teams experienced mediocre seasons, with the Jayvees placing fifth and the tenth graders ending up last in the finals.

The season began on an enthusiastic note as over sixty boys turned out to the first practice. Leading this group was returning tenth grade champ Glenn Erso. Erso took four firsts for the squad as he went into league finals with the third best time in league. In the finals, Glenn faltered and ended up with a disappointing seventh. Dave Robin, who finished second in total points for the team, ended up tenth in the league finals.

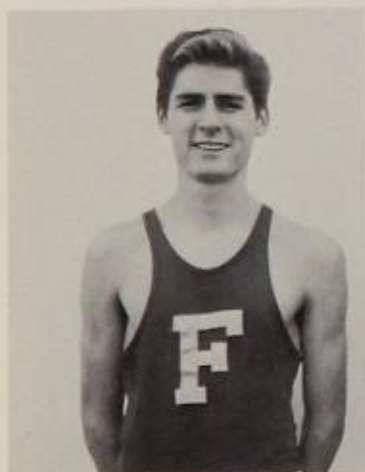

Doing good jobs for the Harriers this season were senior Barry Kolom and tenth grader Robin Tarmu in addition to Erso and Robin.

Coach David Ridderhof is expecting to use Erso and Tarmu as a nucleus for next year's squad.

The varsity track team did not have the strength it needed to back up the fine spirit it possessed this year.

Under the leadership of Mr. Keith Lloyd the team tried vainly to make up for lack of depth. With most of the good runners on the Bee and Cee teams, the squad had at the most, only one or two good men in each event.

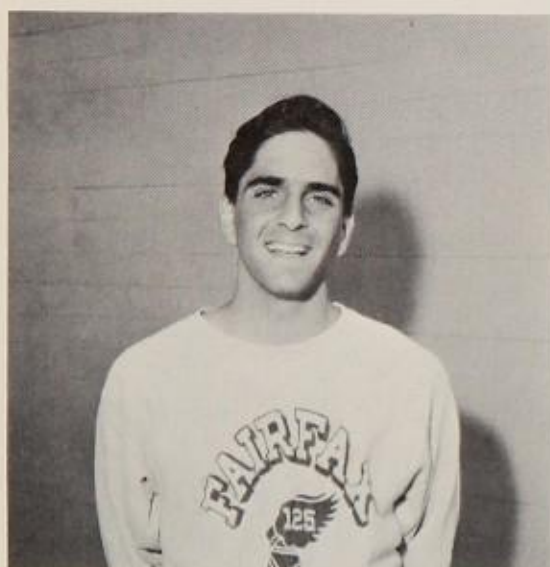

Distance races were the team's best area, with Glenn Erso doing the mile in under 4:28. Richard Miller was the team's fastest sprinter, running the 100 yard dash in 10.3.

Other varsity cindermen leading the team were Mike Gordon, 100 and 220; Jeff Broker, 220 and 440; Barry Kolom, 880; Robert Chernock, mile; Rick Weiss and Andy Meselson, high hurdles; and Dennis Singer, low hurdles.

The varsity field team under Mr. C. K. Sands was also weak, again because of lack of depth. The strongest event was the shot put, with Stu Gottlieb and George Yager putting over 45 feet.

Outstanding members of the field were Mark Somberg, high jump and pole vault, Jeff Broker, broad jump.

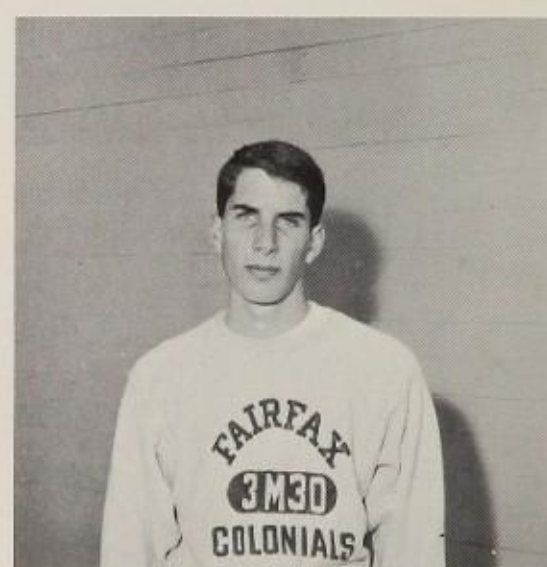

Near shutouts in the meets plagued the thinclads throughout the season, despite hard work by the team.

BEE TRACK

Although the Bee track and field teams were generally better than the Varsity, they still proved to be a disappointment this season. Many fine Bee athletes who could have greatly strengthened the Varsity team, preferred to remain on the Bee squad where they felt they would be able to do better in league competition.

Cross Country star Dave Robin in the 1320, and Varsity baseballer Hal Strom in the pole vault were the squad's best prospects at the beginning of the season.

Individual performers on the Bee team were Steve Solomon, 100; Robin Tarmu, 660; Tom Szamosi and Steve Goldman, low hurdles; Bruce Benjamin, high hurdles; Phil Cooper, broad jump; Mike Hudes and Quentin Gerlach, high jump; Dave Pearlstein, shot put.

The prospects for next season are very good, with many outstanding Bee athletes moving up to Varsity and Bee positions.

CEE TRACK

The 1964 Cee track team was one of the strongest Fairfax has had in recent years. Under the guidance of Mr. Lloyd, the team came close to shutting out Hollywood (81-1) in the first meet of the season. The team was led by the Moss twins, Dave and Don, in the low hurdles and 100 yard dash. The brothers were also the mainstay of the Cee relay.

Lee Neuman, distancing over 19 feet in the broad jump, and Dave Tisherman, shot-putting 47 feet, were the bright spots of the field team. Also leading the CEE team were Art Angel, 100 and high jump; Howard Knee, 660; Roger Brandwein, 1320; Art Golden, pole vault; and Mark Frankfurt, 180.

Gymnastics

GYMNASTIC TEAM

This year's Lion gymnastic squad began this season in fine form, aiming for first place in Western League. A second or third place, however, appeared more probable.

Eight returning lettermen gave the team a backbone of experience. The lettermen included Alan Aaronson, tumbling; Mickey Chaplan, rope; Wayne Marcus, side horse; Joey Skore and Bob Steinberg, rings; Steve Lerner, free exercise; and Joel Tepp, side horse.

The team, once again under the excellent coaching of Mr. Richard Bishop, could also rely on a group of talented new athletes, who gave even more potential to the team. Phil Lucero, Eli dePicciotto, Jeff Marcus and Ted Cooper were some of the new members this season.

The events the gymnasts seemed to excel the most in were the side horse, horizontal bar, rings, tumbling, and free exercise.

Varsity Baseball

With most of its top men having graduated, this year's varsity baseball team could only depend on four returning lettermen for experience. The rest of the team was comprised of J.V. lettermen.

Coach Frank Shaffer relied mainly on a defensive team, with Terry Sobel and Dick Isaac forming the nucleus of the pitching staff. Help also came from Paul Fields and Bob Briggs. The rest of the fairly strong infield was composed of Hal Tinberg, first base; Jerry Yelsky, second base; Jay Jaffe, short stop; and Stan Mann, third base. Playing a variety of positions were Richard Behrman, Richard Bruck, Jack Epstein, and Marty Berman.

The team had two switch hitters in the form of Jay Jaffe and Hal Tinberg. The team's most consistent hitters were Mike Silvera, Terry Sobel, Jay Jaffe, and Dick Isaacs.

J.V. Baseball

This season's Junior Varsity baseball team was highlighted by a fine pitching staff, but was unfortunately hindered by an inexperienced infield and outfield.

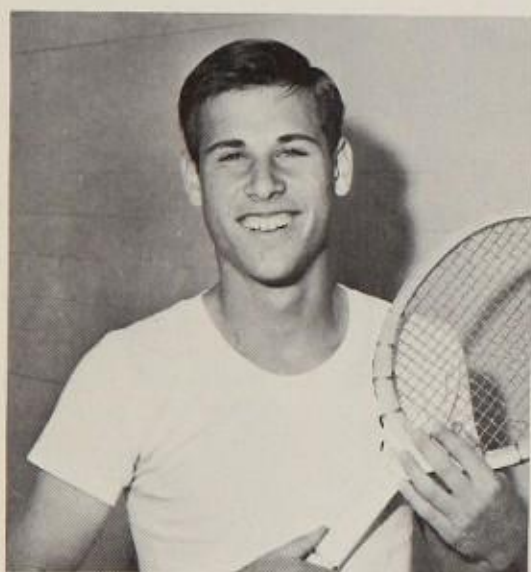

Jim Soo, Tony Young, and Howard Rosen did an excellent pitching job, despite the poor hitting by the team.

The team had only one returning letterman, catcher Steve Schwartz. The remainder of the J.V. lettermen had moved up to varsity positions. In the field was Larry Abramson, first base; Bruce Cohen, second base; Larry Rubin, short stop; and Jeff Miller, third base.

Patrolling the outfield was Steve Rankell (the team's best hitter), right field; Doug Brust, center field; and Shelly Wallach, left field. The team learned a lot of baseball through the hard work of Coach Ken McKenna, and should be much improved by next season.

The 1964 tennis squad was one of moderate strength, depending on five returning lettermen for extra power.

The lettermen, Mike Salkin, Steve Sheldon, Andy Boczan, Bernie Morse, and Jeff Marmelzat, led the team to brilliant victories over Franklin and Verdugo Hills at the beginning of the season. After that the racketmen reverted to playing only average tennis. Other outstanding players coached by Mr. Leonard Taafe were Andy Friedland, Zach Sklar, Roger King, Alan Aiches, and Barry Brooks.

The team is expected to be greatly weakened next season by the loss of many graduating players.

Swim Team

The Colonial swim team began its second season this year under a fine new coach—Mr. Harry Frum—and at a new home-ground the Westside Jewish Community Center.

An increased squad of 37 gave the team balance and depth. In addition nine returning lettermen provided needed experience. The varsity squad had two lettermen: Bob Katz and Rafe Cohen. Lettermen for the Bees were Dean Kaplan, Frank Tansey, Harvey Mymen, Ron Grinel, Daro Inouye and Sandy Szigeti. Jerry Harris was the only Cee letterman.

The strongest event for the team this year were the freestyle sprints, by Bob Katz and a new member of the team, Dave Ankrum. The increased strength of the team, primarily due to the increased in the sport by the school, gave the other Western League schools a lot more competition.
